The Burlington Hawkeye says Iowa Republicans take their tariff beverages straight. They seem to think mixed concoctions are dangerous.

It is said that the steel trust is clearing $10,000,000 a month, and hopes to do even better than that if Congress will only let the tariff alone.

Judge Parker will converse on any public question except his candidacy for the Presidency, and the negro problem, which shows he is possessed with good horse sense.

The Eufaula (Ala.) Times says: "Some people claim that they occasionally hear a long, low wail from the White House in the small hours of the night. It is believed to be due to the Payne in the bowels of the administration."

Kansas seems to be in good shape financially even if she did experience a good sized flood recently. She boasts of $92,000,000 in her banks and a $75,000,000 wheat crop in her fields, to say nothing of the immense crop of corn she annually produces.

We see it stated that a New York syndicate has contracted to take the first mortgage bonds of the proposed Raleigh & Pamlico Sound railroad, amounting to $1,200,000, bearing 5 per cent. interest. These bonds are to be signed by the communities through which the road runs.

New York has some stringent laws governing the gentler sex. No lone woman can get a meal in a restaurant in that city after 9 P. M.; and furthermore she runs risk of arrest if she shows herself on the street after that hour. A woman who later proved her innocence was recently compelled to spend the night in jail as a disorderly person for violating this law.

The life of Pope Leo still hangs by a thread. Another operation was performed on him yesterday which seemed to relieve him somewhat. He afterwards arose, walked a few steps and after taking a seat in his arm chair, read a short while. Later in the day the Pontiff partook of some lunch. He has shown wonderful vitality throughout his illness in battling against death.

Delightful trolley ride, ocean breezes, all in the trip to Wrightsville Beach. †

LOCAL DOTS.

— A two-story annex is being built to the front of Hemenway School.

— Rev. S. J. Beeker, representative of the North Carolina Baptist, will occupy the pulpit of Southside Baptist church to-day.

— An electric fan has been installed by the County Commissioners in the vault of the register of deed's office for the benefit of those who have business there these long, hot Summer days.

— The British steamer "Iona," previously reported ashore in the river above Wilmington, was floated on flood tide yesterday morning and proceeded to Navassa to discharge cargo of pyrites from Huelva.

— The steamer "Southport" broke her propeller shaft down the river yesterday and was towed up to the city by the "Wilmington" in the afternoon. She will be repaired at once and will resume her runs this week.

— The pavilion at Wrightsville Beach will be at the disposal of dancing parties this week, beginning Monday. Many young people will take advantage of it. No cost for pavilion. Music and ice water free. Refreshments at city prices.

— The Casino at Wrightsville Beach closed with the performance last night, but will open again Monday with strong vaudeville or light opera. Manager Schloss leaves tomorrow night for New York to book a metropolitan company for the week.

— Rev. S. R. Belk, of Augusta, Ga., who is visiting the family of Mr. J. B. Brinkley, North Third street, will preach at 11 o'clock this morning at Grace M. E. church. He is an able preacher and the congregation will be delighted with his sermon.

— Owing to sickness the engagement of the Post Exchange Band to play at Carolina Beach this afternoon has been cancelled. However, the natural attraction of the beach and delightful steamer trip will draw large numbers to that splendid resort as usual.

— Hanover Seaside Club will enjoy a delightful hop at its elegant club house on Carolina Beach Wednesday and members are looking forward to the event with much pleasure. The usual trips of the steamer "Wilmington" will be made, with a late boat at 10:30 o'clock.

— In Justice Bornemann's court yesterday William Armstrong, colored, had Minerva Wright, a colored woman, arrested for an assault upon him with a piece of iron. The woman was found not guilty and Armstrong was sent to jail or the roads for 30 days in default of the payment of $5 and fine for disorderly conduct.

PETER JORGENSEN DEAD.

Well Known Marine Man Died at Hospital Yesterday Afternoon.

H. Peter Jorgensen, a native of Denmark, but for a number of years a resident of Wilmington and Southport and for a long time mate on the steamer "Wilmington," died yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the U. S. Marine Hospital in this city, where he had been since April for treatment of tuberculosis. He was 33 years of age and was very popular in marine circles, where he was well known. The greater portion of the past three years he spent in New York, but returned with his family here some time ago and lived with them at No. 118 Market street. His wife and one child survive him. The funeral will be conducted by the Rev. C. W. Kegley, of the Lutheran church, from the hospital this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The following will act as pall-bearers: Dr. C. T. Harper, Messrs H. A. Kure, G. W. Linder, Louis Hanson, J. Hanson, A. S. Heide, A. C. Neilsen and E. P. Bailey.

Wilmington Postmastership.

Washington correspondence, Charlotte Observer: "A morning paper here printed what purported to be an interview with Chairman Rollins stating that he had virtually decided the Wilmington postoffice contest. Mr. Rollins never saw a reporter for the paper in question and he has explicitly stated to every one while here that he did not propose to take up the Wilmington contest until December. The interview was altogether misleading."

Bought Dog and Pony Show.

The Durham Sun is authority for the statement that Mr Emmett Levy, the popular cigar salesman, has purchased at a cost of $18,000 a first-class dog and pony show—one of the best in the world. Frank Wilson, of Durham, will be in the band, and the managers expect to reach Durham some time in October with their aggregation. The first performance will be in Duluth, Minn., this month.

INCREASE IN EXPORTS

Foreign Shipments Break All Records for Fiscal Year Just Ended.

THE PORT OF WILMINGTON.

Figures Compiled at the Custom House Show Over Fifteen Millions Against Eleven Last Year—Comparison With Other Cities—Notes.

The official compilation at the Custom House for the fiscal year ending June 30th, shows that the foreign exports from Wilmington for 1902-1903 will foot up in round numbers fifteen million dollars—the largest in the history of the port. Last year the foreign exports according to the same government figures amounted to only $11,102,171, so it seems that there is an increase of about four million dollars this year.

This showing is very gratifying and is an unmistakable evidence of the progress of the city industrially. The figures, of course, do not include the Domestic exports which have also very largely increased during the year by reason of the establishment here of a number of cross tie and pole enterprises.

The showing undoubtedly places Wilmington second in the list of great ports on the entire South Atlantic coast. Her foreign exports are probably over double the value of those of Charleston and about the same or probably a little larger than Norfolk.

A few days ago reference was made to Wilmington's immense volume of business in all lines. The figures now as to exports and the great increase in postoffice receipts are sufficient signs that "Wilmington do move" and that the city has a great and lasting future before it.

HAS A CASE OF SMALLPOX.

Young Travelling Man Arrived Yesterday from Florence With the Disease.

W. A. Turner, a young white man who has been engaged in canvassing for Mr. John Spillman, the well known dealer in enlarged pictures in this city, was discovered by the health authorities last night with a well developed case of smallpox in the pustular stage. He arrived on the train yesterday afternoon from Florence, S. C., and feeling unwell, he went to the office of a local physician who discovered that he was afflicted with the disease. Dr. C. T. Harper, city superintendent of health, was at once notified and the young man was taken in charge and thoroughly examined. Chief Quarantine Officer Robert Green removed him to the smallpox hospital to the northeast of the city and placed him in charge of a nurse after midnight this morning. The young man has only a mild case of the disease and Dr. Harper says there is no danger of an epidemic by reason of contacts.

Married Yesterday Morning.

Miss Emma E. Lord, the attractive young daughter of Mr. James Lord, and Mr. Herbert H. Jordan, a popular young man of this city, were quietly married at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. C. W. Trawick, Third, between Church and Castle streets. Mr. Jordan is a popular member of the Boys' Brigade of America, now in camp at Southport, and he and Mrs. Jordan received a very cordial telegram from the groom's comrades asking them to come to the encampment to spend their honeymoon.

Board of Equalization.

The County Board of Equalization will meet to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to hear complaints as to overvaluation of property by the recent boards of assessors in the several townships. The Equalization Board is composed of the County Commissioners and the chairman of each of the township boards. The business before the Board will probably not be completed to-morrow afternoon and a recess will likely be taken to the following afternoon.

Ice Factory Again Running.

The Independent ice factory resumed operation yesterday morning at 10 o'clock after the Friday afternoon fire and before night was running up to its full capacity. The repairs to the machinery were made by the Wilmington Iron Works under the personal supervision of its manager, Mr. E. P. Bailey.

BALTIMORE ELKS' REUNION.

North Carolina Will be Well Represented. Elaborate Arrangements Being Made for Their Entertainment.

Elks from all over the United States will gather in countless numbers for the annual reunion next week in Baltimore, and the Monumental City is preparing to entertain royally its distinguished guests upon that occasion. North Carolina will be well represented and Wilmington will furnish her full quota of merry antlers. The uniform of the Carolinians will be white duck trousers, crimson double-breasted flannel coats and yachting caps of flag blue with the lodge numbers embroidered in white on the front. The Wilmington delegation will leave over the Atlantic Coast Line Sunday night in a special Pullman car, arriving at its destination before noon the following day.

The convention proper will open Tuesday July 21st and continue three days but the enterprising Baltimoreans have arranged a programme of entertainment during the entire week, beginning on Monday. The Hotel Committee reports that between 25,000 and 26,000 have already asked for accommodation and that the number of visitors may reach 50,000. The convention sessions will be presided over by Grand Exalted Ruler Geo. P. Cronk, of Omaha, Neb. The Baltimore lodge has a reception committee of 150 members, who will meet each and every train. There will also be a reception committee of ladies. An elaborate souvenir programme will give the visitors all the information they desire about the city and the reunion. Twenty-five bands are expected to be present and they will compete for four cash prizes ranging from $300 to $1,000. Wednesday the great Elks' Parade will take place, six prizes from $50 to $400 being offered for the best display by a lodge. At night a reception will be given by the ladies at the Elks' Home.

Thursday the Elks will have a free outing and crab feast at Tolchester Beach, including a 40-mile trip on the Chesapeake bay. Friday and Saturday will also be given over to free excursions and merry-making. The reunion is confidently expected to break all records in the history of the order. The electrical displays and other decorations of the city will be gorgeous.

THE STREET CAR DISORDER.

One of Four Defendants Paid Fine and Gave Bond—The Others.

Jno. Tharpe, one of the young white men fined for having raised a disturbance on a street car at Ninth and Princess streets one night last week, yesterday paid his fine of $10 and gave bond in the sum of $100 with Mr. J. C. Walton as surety for his appearance in Justice Fowler's court later to answer the charge of an assault, with his three companions, upon Conductor Walker. The trial will be held as soon as Williams and Davis have completed 30-day sentences on the roads for disorderly conduct. O. C. Grant, the fourth member of the party implicated in the trouble, is still held at the police station pending his arrangements to pay the fine imposed upon him for disorderly conduct and to make up bond for his appearance with the three others before Justice Fowler, to whom the cases were removed by Mayor Springer.

STOLE MONEY AND BAGGAGE CHECK.

Curley Stokes Arrested by Police Upon That Charge—Trial Tuesday.

Curley Stokes, colored, was arrested yesterday morning by Policeman W. J. Howard on a warrant charging him with the larceny of $13 in cash and a baggage check from a colored man with whom he lives in the northern section of the city. The wife of the colored man heard some one in her room late at night and she called her husband but he did not wake. The following morning the man awoke to find that his trouser pockets had been rifled of two pocket-books containing the amount named and the baggage check, which was for a piece of baggage at the A. C. L. station.

Stokes has arranged for counsel and secured a postponement of his trial until Tuesday.

No Danger of Ice Famine.

In its account of the fire at the Independent ice factory Thursday, the STAR meant no reflection upon the other ice plant in this city in its suggestion of an ice famine; indeed it was learned yesterday that had the entire plant of the Independent factory been destroyed, the possibility of an ice famine would have been very remote, as Messrs. W. E. Worth & Co. have two machines that are in reserve and could be put to work to manufacture enough ice in a few days to supply local demands for a long time.

To Build Government Wharf.

Extensive repairs will be commenced very soon to the wharf property recently purchased by the government directly in front of the Custom House. An inspector was here a short time ago and upon his recommendation that the wharf be put in thorough repair proposals will be invited shortly for the material and work. When the new wharf is built the government will own 270 feet of the best wharf in the city.

N. C. NATIONAL GUARD

Official Order as to Encampment of Regiments Issued by the Adjutant General.

THE NEWS AT RALEIGH.

Bank of Faison and Other Enterprises Chartered by the Secretary of State. Supreme Court Will Convene Aug. 24th Instead of 31st.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., July 11.—Adjutant Gen. B. S. Royster announces that the North Carolina National Guard will encamp this Summer by regiments—First regiment and Battery "A" at Asheville, Aug. 19-25. Second regiment, Morehead City, July 22-28. Third regiment, Greensboro, August 6-12. General orders are issued prescribing that each company must have 75 per cent. membership in camp. Major F. H. French, Sixteenth Infantry, has been detailed instructor general and will visit the camps. Governor Aycock will also review regiments while in camp.

The Bank of Faison was chartered to-day, with $10,000 capital, B. B. Witherington and John M. Faison being among the principal incorporators.

A charter is granted the Clyde Cotton Mill, of Newton, capital $100,000; J. C. Smith, G. A. Warlick and R. B. Knox, incorporators.

The Faison Ginning and Manufacturing Co. is chartered, with $5,000 capital, to operate cotton gins and an oil mill. C. S. Hines, M. McD. Williams are among the incorporators.

Official announcement was made today that the Supreme Court will convene August 31, instead of August 24, because, notwithstanding the statute prescribes the "fourth Monday in August," the term "last Monday in August" appears in all court documents, and this year August has five Mondays; so the members agree to defer the meeting.

KICKED UP A GENERAL ROW.

Bad Man at a Negro Celebration on the Sound Arrested.

James Hooper, colored, of Masonboro township, was arrested by Constable Savage yesterday and will be tried in Justice Fowler's court Tuesday on a multiplicity of charges. Last week the colored population of Masonboro were having a big fish fry and celebration at one of the sound landings. Hooper filled himself with a bad quality of liquor and went in to terrify the natives. He joined a procession the negroes were having and armed himself with a murderous-looking club. Jumping out of the line of march, he lambasted one of the "processioners" in the rear ranks with the bludgeon and wounded him severely. The next sally was at a mule, being driven to a cart in an opposite direction. He knocked the animal's teeth out and indulged in other antics sufficient to break up the meetin'.

Hooper was committed to jail in default of bond for his appearance at the preliminary trial.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS YESTERDAY.

Those Which Appear from Deeds Filed for Record at the Court House.

Charles D. Gilbert and wife to Augustus Sartor, of Augusta, Ga., for $1,650, house and lot on east side of Seventh, between Walnut and Red Cross streets.

Thomas Settle and wife and Tench C. Cox and wife to Adelaide S. Meares, Susan K. Lovering, Eliza N. Munds, Margarette M. Thorpe, Walker Meares and Josh W. Meares, deed to correct title to property on east side Seventh, between Walnut and Red Cross streets.

Prompt Insurance Payment.

Mrs. Sarah Jane McGowan, widow of the late Capt. James M. McGowan, yesterday received from Treasurer J. D. Nutt a check for $3,000, same having been the amount of insurance carried in the Endowment Rank, Knights of Pythias, by her late husband. Capt. McGowan died June 20th and the check was dated July 8th, so that for prompt payment this record cannot be excelled, settlement having been made in just 18 days.

Boys Are in Camp.

Commissary Sergeant A. A. Hergenrother, of the Boys' Brigade, came up from Southport yesterday afternoon. He says the young soldiers are comfortably quartered in camp and have entered upon a fine outing. Many of the members of the Brigade who could not go down at 5 o'clock yesterday morning will join their comrades to-day.

COLLEGIANS WERE DEFEATED.

Home Boys Secured a Victory by the Score of 11 to 6.

The game of baseball at Hilton park yesterday resulted in a victory for the Home Boys by a score of 11 to 6. The victors are justly proud of it. It was a rather slow game at first, but the finish was fast and snappy with many features. The Collegians take the defeat hard and will give a good game next time. The line up was as follows:

Home Boys.		Collegians.
King	c	Moore (capt)
Tucker	p	Peschau
Sweeney	1b	McIntire
Jackson	2b	Green
Crow	3b	Calder
Banks	ss	Smith
Banger	lf	Croom
Tennen	cf	Mills
Cantwell (capt)	rf	Manship

The Home Boys made 14 hits and 6 errors, while the Collegians were able to secure only 8 hits, but kept the figures in the error column down to 3. A good crowd witnessed the game.

BLACKLEY BOUND OVER TO COURT.

Hearing Before the Mayor in Raleigh Friday—Bond Put at $4,500.

[Raleigh News and Observer.]

The case of J. C. Blackley, the horse dealer, who is charged with embezzling some $6,000 from a dealer named McAdow, of Agricola, Kansas, was heard before Mayor Powell yesterday afternoon, with the result that Blackley was bound over to court in a bond of $4,500, which he gave.

The case was fought hard, by both sides, Mr. S. G. Ryan and Col. J. C. L. Harris defending Blackley, and Messrs. Argo & Shaffer appearing on the other side.

The charge against Blackley was that he sold several car loads of mules in Raleigh and other places for McAdow, and did not turn over the money. Blackley claims he was McAdow's partner, and McAdow claims Blackley was merely working for him as an agent, on a commission on sales. This was the question argued yesterday, whether Blackley was McAdow's agent or partner.

There was another charge against Blackley by a man named Lytle, but this was not prossed.

WILLIAM H BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, JULY 12.

JUDGE PARKER IN GEORGIA.

Charleston News and Courier: Judge Parker, of the Supreme Court of New York, a possible candidate for the Democratic nomination for President, and if nominated a dead sure winner according to the predictions of many of the shrewdest of the political prophets, made a very excellent address to the Georgia Bar Association last week.

hat he said on the suffrage question was to the point. In his opinion the United States Supreme Court will not construe the amendments to the constitution so as to destroy the identity of the States.

That is all that we could ask of the Supreme Court. The better judgment of the country is that the amendments, and particularly the fifteenth amendment, should never have been adopted, that they were adopted by force and fraud, and that in the fulness of time, when the country has recovered its just mental equilibrium, the amendments will be construed by the courts, or be repealed by the people, so that they will not stand in the way of a proper and just settlement for all time of the race question.

The New York Evening Post takes the negro side of every question touching the suffrage rights and citizenship of negroes that is presented. It could not permit Judge Parker to go to Georgia and speak to the lawyers of that State without advising him "to speak a direct and wholesome word to the people of the South," on the "leading national issue — abridged suffrage, denied citizenship, refusal of equal treatment before the law, and the recrudescence of slavery as affecting our negro population." Judge Parker does not appear to have been influenced in the least by the counsel of the Post. He will probably be abused by it because he did not follow its suggestions, and it will find, doubtless in the end that, while William Lloyd Garrison was a very good man in his way in his day, there is not even one rational campaign in his ghost. The substantial thing which he and his desperately earnest assocites sought to accomplish was accomplished when slavery was abolished, but even he and they would never have attempted to make a white man out of a negro.

The Macon Telegraph advises the Evening Post that it is a long time before the next political campaign will really begin, and that the Georgia politicians who greeted Judge Parker as "our next president" "will do the same thing, not wickedly but in good faith and common politeness when Randy Hearst comes, when Gorham comes, when Dave Hill comes." That is the way the Georgia politicians do, and when the election is held they will all vote the straight Democratic ticket even though Grover Cleveland should be placed at the head of the line. That is the way Georgia politicians do, and it is a very good way, we think, in this part of the country. That is the way the politicians in all of the other Southern States do, and a way which will make it utterly impossible for the negro, whatever his educational attainments, to rule over the white people of the South.

THE FINANCIAL OUTLOOK.

The total amount of money in the United States is in round numbers $2,375,000,000, an increase during the past year of $126,500,000. Yet the financial situation is not considered wholly satisfactory by thoughtful bankers and men of business, says the Columbia State. They desire a more elastic currency than that which we have, but Joe Cannon, who will be next speaker of the house, is reported as unfavorable to any change. The United States, in spite of what Mr. Cannon may think, has an inferior system. Silver and greenbacks are fixed in volume. The gold supply depends rather on the output of the mines than the needs of business; so that the only opportunity for a scientific change in volume is limited to the issue of national bank bills based upon United States bonds limited in volume and still decreasing. Two bills claiming to afford relief were debated by the last Congress. That proposed by Senator Aldrich provided for an issue of bills on the security of bonds of certain solvent corporations; while the Fowler bill proposed an issue based on general assets. The advocates of each measure succeeded in defeating the other without accomplishing any positive results themselves. This inability to deal with a problem of such importance reflects no credit on Congress.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Charles Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had Consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood; but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained fifty-eight pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

The body of Col. Wm. J. Best, who died in San Rafael, Cal., on April 6th, was exhumed in the cemetery at Caldwell, N. J., Wednesday last for the purpose of determining whether poison had caused death. To the complete astonishment of every one connected with the case, the autopsy on the body of the Colonel showed that the body had been opened previously and the abdominal organs removed, the cavity being filled with sawdust. Dr. McKenzie made the incisions but found that the organs needed were missing. However, the mass of sawdust which filled the cavity was carefully sifted and revealed some of the viscera, which with parts of the intestines and the sawdust itself, will be sent to San Francisco to be analyzed. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of "Dr." John D. Woods and Alice Woods, at whose house Col. Best died.

The Hon. Romulus Z. Linney is a peach. He was at Catawba court the past week and revealed while there his theory as to the cause of death and how to escape. The Newton Enterprise quotes him:

His theory is that the loss of vitality is due to atmospheric pressure and if we could get high enough in the atmosphere we would escape death. And he quoted Lord Bacon as saying that but for the shape of the eagle's beak, which causes its death, it would live forever, because it spars above the pressure of the atmosphere.

Mr. Linney has just returned from a six weeks' stay on his Watauga farm, which is perched on the top of a mountain 5,500 feet high. He says while there the vigor and buoyancy of his youth returned to him and the mountain is full of octogenarians. Men of 80 to 90 years old are clearing new grounds and rolling logs and appear to be not more than 40 years old.

CURRENT COMMENT.

— Considering the meek and lowly manner in which Gov. Cumming submitted to having his tariff plank splintered over his head, the Republican managers may indulge in justifiable hopes of sawing off the vice presidential nomination onto him. He will evidently stand anything.—Chicago Chronicle, Dem.

— The Czar says, "You're another," the retort discourteous and untrue. There is a deal of difference between lynching even a million negroes for rape and murder, unjustifiable as lynching is, and the Kischeneff massacre, in which many people were put to death and more rendered homeless for the offense of being Jews.—Houston (Texas) Chronicle.

— There are 25,000 negro voters in the State of Illinois. If Senator Hopkins of that State is so anxious that there shall be black faces in the hall of the House of Representatives, why does he not use his influence to have colored Congressmen elected from Illinois? Like many of the Northern Republicans, Senator Hopkins exercises himself for the "rights" of the negroes in the South, but pays no attention to those who reside in his own section of the country.—Savannah News, Dem.

— Three hundred teachers are attending the summer school at the A. & M. College at Raleigh.

— The $20,000 20-year 5 per cent. bonds of Wake county, issued to refund the floating debt of the county, were sold to Seasongood & Myers, of Cincinnati, for $21,310, which is a premium of $1,310.

— Major T. L. Emery has sold the famous Weldon fair grounds to Gen. Matt. W. Ransom, the consideration being $7,500. The grounds will be put in fine condition and a big fair will be held there this fall.

Three new buildidgs will be erected for the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage the present year. These are already provided for. This enables the orphanage to care for 400 children instead of 260, the number now present.

— Fire at Newbern Wednesday night destroyed eight tenement houses, Mitchell's livery stables, Scott's livery stables, prize houses and a tobacco warehouse. The Journal newspaper office was endangered but by heroic work on the part of the firemen it was saved. The damage will reach $50,000.

— Clinton Democrat: Tobacco curing is now going on at a lively rate in this section. Mr. James D. Moore, of South Clinton, cured a barn last week, as did also Mr. W. J. Weeks, of Halls. Mr. Weeks brought us a sample of his cure last Saturday. It appeared to us to be well cured and the tobacco of a fine texture.

— The Shelby Star says the barn of Mr. Berry Barrett, near New Prospect church, Cleveland county, was struck by lightning and burned Sunday evening. Two horses and a milch cow were burned in the stables and the barn contained 90 bushels of wheat and much other provender, all of which was burned.

— Oxford Ledger: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williford, of the Berea section, had three sons born to them a few days ago, two weighing six pounds each and one weighing six and a half pounds. At last accounts the children were doing well. The three children above mentioned make their number twenty in twenty years, including living and dead. They have lost three little ones and have seventeen.

— Reidsville Review: George Gant, a young labor agent, is languishing in jail at Wentworth. Gant, who represents the Blue Ridge Iron Mines, of Blue Ridge Spring, went to Madison one day last week in search of laborers. When he stepped from the Norfolk and Western train he pulled a vicious revolver and began pumping hot lead into a nearby inoffensive coach. He was arrested and locked up in the calaboose, from which he escaped by cutting a hole through the floor and tunnelling his way out. He was recaptured during the night and carried to the Wentworth jail.

— The Charlotte News says that the whiskey distillers who have been put out of business by the Watts law are getting desperate. One of the best known distillers of western North Carolina even went over into South Carolina to see if he could set up his rum factory over there. He has returned a wiser but sadder man. His petition was turned down by the State board of control, because these gentlemen feared that ere long every distiller doing business in North Carolina, to say nothing of those just closed out, would flock to the Palmetto State.

— Lexington Dispatch: In Salisbury Thursday W. A. Cable, the freight conductor charged with an assault with a deadly weapon upon his wife, besides brutally maltreating her, was placed under a $300 bond for his appearance at court and $25 to answer to the charge of carrying a concealed weapon. The intense feeling against Cable was manifest at the trial. He failed to give bond and is in jail and the railroad company has discharged him. Mrs. Cable has brought suit for divorce and has gone to her old home at Chatham, Va.

— Statesville Landmark: A Raleigh correspondent stated recently that the convicts in the State prison worked only eight hours a day. A writer in the Charlotte Observer, over the signature of "Raleigh Citizen," says the convicts work eleven and a half hours a day and also have to work on Saturday afternoons and at times on Sundays. The bill of fare, he says, is: Breakfast, three half-raw biscuits, two small slices of cold bacon, a cup of coffee and a pan of grease that tastes like cotton seed oil; only five minutes in which to eat breakfast; dinner, a slice of bacon and a pan of peas, with pot liquor for dessert; supper, corn bread and pot liquor. On the whole this correspondent insists that the convicts are very badly treated.

— Lexington special to Charlotte Observer: Within the last few days there has been two unsuccessful attempts to commit suicide in this county, namely: Grant Motsinger, of Bethany, who ate some concentrated lye, and Westley Fouts, who drank an ounce of laudanum. Motsinger consumed nearly a box of lye before he was discovered. His mouth and throat were badly burned, but it did not prove fatal. He is 30 years old and an excellent citizen, being of a highly respected family. Fouts, on Sunday afternoon, drank nearly an ounce of laudanum, and not until an elapse of five hours did the doctor, who was summoned from here, arrive. But by the skilful work of several hours he regained consciousness and is now on the road to recovery.

WITH THE DECLINE OF SUMMER

Any one who has had experience in the care of the sick knows that it is no easy task to gauge the doses of medicine prescribed by the physician, and perhaps those who perform the duties of the nurse can best appreciate the advantage of the dropping mouthpiece for bottles presented in the illustration. It is formed of a glass tube, with a contracted outlet and an enlargement near the center, in which is seated a glass ball. It is intended, says a writer in the Philadelphia Times, that when the bottle is in an upright position the ball will fall to the center of the contracted portion of the tube and completely seal the opening to prevent evaporation. A rubber sleeve which fits over the rear end of the tube insures a tight joint when the device is applied to bottles of different sizes.

The upper side of the tube contains a small perforation, through which air enters to relieve the vacuum as the liquid flows out, which action, owing to the contracted opening, takes place only a drop at a time. After the required number of drops have been measured out the bottle is gradually returned to its vertical position, permitting all the liquid to return to its lowest level before the ball leaves its seat in the enlargement and seals the opening.

Should the liquid carry the ball beyond its seat in the outward rush the flow is not prevented owing to the peculiar shape of the tube at the place where the ball finds lodgment.

Diet in Rheumatism.

G. O. Jarvis, says the International Medical Magazine, thus sums up the result of his researches: Allow a liberal meat diet, cooked by being either broiled or roasted, and served rare. Eat carbohydrates in moderation, cooked so as to preserve the salts—that is to say, by frying in an excess of boiling oil—and fats in rather small amounts. Water should be drunk plentifully, and it should be especially directed that some water be taken between meals. Alcoholic drinks, tea and coffee are to be used in great moderation. It is better not to take alcoholic drinks at all.

Typhoid Fever Serum.

A typhoid antitoxin serum invented by Dr. Allen Macfayden and indorsed by no less a person that Lord Lister is the latest medical discovery, says the Scientific American. Dr. Macfayden is the director of the Jenner Institute of Preventive Medicine. Briefly stated, Dr. Macfayden's discovery consists in this: He has found that by crushing the cells of the typhoid bacillus in liquid air the intercellular juices are not only obtained without living organisms, but are also rendered highly toxic. When injected into living animals, these juices produce a blood serum which acts as an antidote against the poison generated by the typhoid bacillus. The novel feature in this process is the use of liquid air, the function of which is not fully understood as yet.

Young Eagles.

An eagle lives from eighty to 160 years. The young birds are driven forth by their savage parents to provide for themselves as soon as they are able to fly. No training is given them by the old bird. That is left to their wild instincts, which hunger and necessity develop. There is no "going back to the old home" for the young eagles. The mother bird tears up every vestige of the nest, and if they emit plaintiff shrieks the old birds dart at them and push them off the crags or rocks and thereby make them take to their wings. It takes three years for a young eagle to gain its complete plumage and strength.—Independent.

Never Tease a Horse.

Teasing a horse is something that should not be tolerated. A horse cannot understand a joke like a man, and the teasing will make him vicious. Teasing a colt or a calf affords children and thoughtless men amusement for the time being, but these usually develop into vicious animals. I once had a calf when I was a young man, and I let him bunt me around the lot, and I thought it was fun. Later he was "ruler of the roost," and he "found an early grave"—that is, he became so grave that he had to pay the penalty by going over the block.—St. Louis Republic.

Throwing Away a Fortune.

A poor Austrian official in the civil service bought two tickets in the Hungarian philanthropic state lottery. A little while afterward his funds ran very low, and he sent back one of the tickets to the lottery office and asked that the money he had paid for it might be returned. This very ticket won the first prize at the drawing, amounting to 150,000 kronen, a sum which would have made the official rich beyond his utmost dreams if he had not at the last moment let his own good fortune slip out of his hand.

Sorrow In Childhood.

A lady was once talking to Queen Elizabeth of Roumania and advanced the theory that sorrow in childhood cast a shadow over the whole life, rendering happiness in later years impossible.

"Do not believe it," replied the queen. "Happiness is like an ocean. It bears you away from the past and all its many sorrows, provided only that you do not persist in looking backward."

Only Place For Him.

Some one said to Brother Dickey:

"Here's a story of a man who has five wives."

Brother Dickey didn't reply for a second or two. Then he said:

"I s'pose dey'll keep him dar all de time now?"

"Keep him where?"

"Why, in de asylum, of co'se!"—Atlanta Constitution.

The Place For It.

"What are you snorting about?" asked the young walrus of the old one, who was perusing a scrap of newspaper.

"Here's a doctor who says it's unhealthy to go into the water after a meal. How would we get it if we didn't?"—Philadelphia Press.

Why Pay as Much

for an inferior beer?

Schlitz beer costs twice what common beer costs in the brewing. One-half pays for the product; the other half for its purity.

One-half is spent in cleanliness, in filtering even the air that touches it, in filtering the beer, in sterilizing every bottle. And it pays the cost of aging the beer for months before we deliver it.

If you ask for Schlitz you get purity and age, you pay no more than beer costs without them.

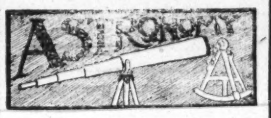
SUNDAY SELECTIONS.

Services at Seamen's Bethel this afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. Mr. Shamburger. Public invited.

St. Matthew's English Lutheran church, North Fourth street, Rev. C. W. Kegley pastor: Sunday school at 9:45 A. M. Preaching at 11 A. M. No night services.

Fifth Street M. E. Church, Rev. F. M. Shamburger, pastor: Divine service at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. Sunday school at 4:30 P. M. Prayer meeting Wednesday at 8 P. M. The Rev. M. R. S. Balk, of Augusta, Ga., will preach at the night service.



We have been taught to look upon our planet merely as one of the smaller satellites of a low class sun and upon ourselves, at least from an astronomical point of view, as something less than grasshoppers, says the Literary Digest. Now, however, Professor Alfred Russell Wallace, the veteran English biologist, regards it as proved that our solar system is practically in the center of the universe, which is certainly limited in extent, and that the earth is in the most favorable position in that system for the development of life; hence, in a biological sense, we are in the center of things after all. Professor Wallace believes that we are the only intelligent living beings in existence and that the creation of the universe has culminated in our appearance, which was its end and aim.

Puzzle For Astronomers.

The new star that flashed out in Perseus at the beginning of the twentieth century seems to be the herald of another revision of our astronomy. Professor Simon Newcomb shows reasons for assigning this star to the Milky Way and that a conservative estimate is that its light, traveling at 186,000 miles per second, must require 3,400 years to reach the earth. The nebula that has spread from this star has reached a diameter of more than four minutes of arc in a few months. Until now explosions of hydrogen have seemed to explain the blazing up of suns in two or three days to thousands of times their original brightness, but the incandescent gas from these explosions seems incapable of traveling more than a few hundred miles per second, and the Perseus nebula has extended with vastly greater velocity.

A Lost Fee.

Dr. Hunter, the famous English physician, invariably received very large fees for his services. On one occasion when he was asked by a lady, the amount of his fee he informed her that he made an invariable practice of never fixing its amount. "Very well, sir," the patient promptly answered, "if you cannot fix it I am sure I can't." And, to the doctor's consternation, she walked out of the room without paying him a penny.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The cotton market opened easy with prices unchanged to twenty-five points lower, and subsequently ruled quiet with trading of a local character and small, except for moderate selling orders inspired by the generally favorable character of weather and crop accounts. The market also derived a weak undertone from a poorer class of cables than looked for. Selling for short account, however, was checked by continued fears of renewed manipulation. Towards noon the trading level was two to fifteen points under the closing of the previous day, with the decline mainly on the nearer position.

EASY TO GO WRONG.

A Wilmington Contractor Points Out the Right Path.

It's so easy to make a terrible mistake when your very life depends upon your decision. This is because you may not realize that your existence hangs in the balance. This is the case when a continuous backache begins to warn you that your kidneys are out of order, and that failure to go to the rescue will subject you to the dread possibility of diabetes, Bright's disease or dropsy. It's just as easy to take heed and to go the right way. A prominent Wilmington contractor points it out.

P. C. Le Moyne, contractor, of 223 North 7th St., says: "I did not know that the trouble with my back was caused by my kidneys not acting properly, although I noticed the secretions from those organs were dark and very irregular, sometimes free and and at other times scanty. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and went to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. I was surprised at the result, for I have not had backache since I used them. I also got a box of Doan's Ointment. I have had itching hemorrhoids or piles for years, and tried everything I knew of without benefit. Doan's Ointment gave me instant relief.—I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills in England some years ago, and until now I was under the impression that they were made only in England. In addition to my backache being cured the kidney secretions have all cleared up and become normal since using the Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

DR. MOFFETT'S TEETHINA (TEETHING POWDERS)

BLACK SPRINGS, Ark., Sept. 18, 1901.

Rev. J. W. Berry (of Arkansas Methodist Conference, writes:) "Enclosed find fifty cents for which please mail me two packages of "TEETHINA." We wonder how we have raised children without it. The other day a lady in Missouri sent us a package and it came at a most opportune time; our babe was in a serious condition; his bowels had been in bad condition for days, and nothing that we gave did any good; the second dose of "TEETHINA" gave perfect relief and he has had no further trouble. Other members of the family have used it and every dose has been a perfect success.

DOES GOLD GROW?

Seems to, In its Wild State, but Not After It Has Become Civilized.

Some reasons for answering this question in the affirmative are given by "Popular Mechanics," which warns the reader, however, that he must not expect to grow gold eagles from dollars. Says the writer:

"It has been found that gold nuggets under favorable conditions actually increase in size. Gold is known to have grown on mine timbers which have long been immersed in mine water. In the California State Mining Bureau museum there is a specimen of a piece of jointed cap and post taken from the Comstock, where it had been under water for years, in which gold has formed in the joints and pores of the wood. Gold is constantly being formed in rocks and veins and placers. Just what it is that the baby gold formation feeds on to effect its growth is not known. If it were, a new and wonderfully lucrative industry might be born, and all other kinds of farming save the growing of gold might temporarily be abandoned. The formation and growth are due to mechanical and chemical action. As in the case of the animal or vegetable the gold has existed in some other state before assuming its present form. Waters which percolate through the earth's crust are said to contain substances from which gold is formed. Thus gold, like the animal and vegetable, must have water in order to thrive. The gold in the water is deposited when it meets the proper precipitant. The precipitant may be an earth current of electricity, some vegetable growth or chemical in the rocks. It has been claimed that the nuggets found in placers are the formations from the waters that percolate through the gravels, and are not from decomposed quartz, as generally supposed. Those who so contend cite the fact that in the center of nuggets can be often found a small grain of iron sand. This was the nucleus around which the earth current of electricity created or deposited in electroplating. During long ages this influence was at work causing the gold to form around the little grain of iron ore and then grow to become a bright, shining nugget of gold much larger and purer than any ever found in the veins of ore."

THE FEMININE FIB.

A Judicious Blend of Black, White, Gray and Chinese Lies.

A distinguished preacher once divided lies into "black lies, white lies, gray lies and Chinese lies." The feminine fib is generally a judicious blend of the white lie and the Chinese lie. For the benefit of those who have never graduated in the special mendacity tripos it may be explained that a Chinese lie is, as a rule, purely ornamental, being of the nature of embroidery, which is intended to add beauty and color to the plain object on which it is used as trimming.

The Chinese lie is prompted by the very highest and noblest of motives—namely, a desire to give pleasure to others, many a plain, dull fact being served up and made quite tasty and appetizing by a little judicious garniture of Chinese—er—embroidery. Directed into the proper channel, a Chinese liar becomes a skillful writer of fiction and turns her gift to profitable account. But the everyday feminine amateur, who has not this outlet for her farradiddular talent, turns her attention to the afternoon tea table and adds a spice to whatever gossip is going by a gentle peppering of fibs.

Unfortunately this gift of imagination is often accompanied by a defective memory, whereas to make a good —er—prevaricator nothing is so essential as a good memory. Without this the employer of the Chinese method is almost certain to get found out sooner or later—generally sooner—and then she has the mortification of finding that her little efforts to please quite fail in their effect. And not only that; but, what is more trying still, she even finds that when from lack of material for fictional purposes she does for once serve up the cold, ungarnished truth her hearers have so got in the habit of disbelieving her that her plain statement is received with incredulity. That is why any one who aims at distinction in the fibbing world must carefully cultivate a good memory and so follow the Golden Rule to avoid being found out. —Modern Society.

FORTUNES FOR TWO.

The Way Russell Sage Paid a Doctor Who Refused a Fee.

A former Baltimorean who was a close friend of a Philadelphia physician whose specialty was kidney diseases relates the following as the method by which Russell Sage paid the doctor a bill:

The physician was on a visit to a friend in New York. Mr. Sage was very ill at his home from a diseased kidney. Hearing that the Philadelphia doctor was in New York, Mr. Sage requested him to call. The doctor did so, and within ten days Mr. Sage was a well man. A check, signed by Mr. Sage, with the amount left blank, was handed the doctor, who declined it, stating that he could not break his inviolable rule of confining his practice strictly to office work. When he visited people who were too poor or physically unable to get to his office he never accepted pay for his services.

During his visits to Mr. Sage's home the doctor was accompanied by his daughter, a winsome miss of ten years. About a month after the occurrence the doctor's little daughter received a telegram from a Wall street broker which read: "By order of Mr. Russell Sage, I have bought for your account —— shares of —— stock." As soon as the doctor read the dispatch he hurried to a Philadelphia friend, who was a broker, and ordered him to buy —— shares of the stock mentioned for his (the doctor's) account. The stock fluctuated, and when it was selling at a price which would pay a good profit the broker advised the doctor to sell, but the doctor did not take the advice. Later a dispatch came from the New York broker to the little girl. It read: "Have sold for your account —— shares of —— stock." The doctor immediately unloaded his holdings. These transactions were repeated several times and not only made the doctor a small fortune, but won for him a reputation as a shrewd financier. A final telegram came from New York for the little girl: "Have closed out your holdings and mail you a check for —— thousands." The doctor unloaded and dropped out of the stock market as suddenly as he had entered it, much to the mystification of his broker and friends, who had heard of his successes, but never knew whether to attribute them to a "Henrietta" luck or to careful study of the stock dealt in.—Baltimore Sun.

How Beans Thrive.

Beans thrive much better when planted at a depth of three inches. Poles 8 feet long, 2 by 3 inches, are set four in each row. Twine is strung across and around them, forming a trellis. The bean weaves its way up through the strings, which form a good support, and makes a fine appearance when growing. Under the old way of setting poles at each hill when the vines climb the pole they bind each other so closely that their bearing qualities are greatly hampered.

CARRARA QUARRIES.

How the Men Set About to Lower the Fragments of Marble.

As soon as a great fragment of marble detached by the blast has stopped rolling it is more or less roughly squared into a block weighing, say, forty tons.

Then the men set about getting it down. Along certain lines of descent offering the least resistance to a body descending by force of gravitation a succession of stout posts has been firmly driven into the loose stones and marble waste. The men by means of crowbars and screw jacks raise the block on to a soaped skid of hard beech wood, of which they have several at hand. Before doing this they secure the block by means of three long three to five inch hempen cables, with which they take turns around the posts and pay out sufficient rope only to allow of the ponderous mass sliding over the soaped skids by its own weight and the angle of the incline, but not to allow of its gaining too much momentum.

During this descent, besides the men tailing on to the ropes, two or more men are seated on the block. A man following closely in its wake hands them up the skid just passed over, which they resoap and hand down to a man, who keeps just in front of the moving mass, to put down in its path and so provide a continuous slipway. This last mentioned worker has the most perilous task. If one of the cables part at a critical moment or if a mistake be made in paying out or slackening them, he must inevitably be crushed.

It is a fine sight to see the men at the last pinch, near the railhead, hand levering the marble over rollers on to the truck. At this stage all hands are yelling like demons at their work, but the moment their burden is safely entrained every man flings down his tool, and all bolt for the osteria, or wineshop.—Pearson's Magazine.

Baldness Not Due to Modern Flour.

The human race was afflicted with baldness and toothlessness centuries before white flour was known. It is possible that both these afflictions are less prevalent now than in the olden times. All the olden time pictures and statues of the dead races showed up a good percentage of bald heads, and tooth pulling and filling and even artificial toothmaking were practiced away back in history. Out of the ruins of Pompeii and Herculaneum are taken whole sets of false teeth along with loaves of bran bread.

The Ideal and the Real.

Uncle Joe—This is a queer world.

City Man—What makes you think so?

Uncle Joe—Well, a painter-feller came down to my place last summer and while he was loafing about painted a picter of my dog. I heard afterward that he sold it for $50, so I brought up the dog, thinking I could get at least a cool $100 for him; but, by jingo, I can't even give him away!

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equalled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Cal., writes: "For fifteen years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me, though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters, and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50 cents. Satisfaction guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist.

SUNDAY MORNING, JULY 12.

ANOTHER MURDER MYSTERY IN NEW YORK CITY.

Police Investigating the Death of Chas W Roxbury, Supposed to Have Been Held Up and Robbed.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

NEW YORK, July 11.—The police are investigating the death of Charles W. Roxbury, a tea expert. Roxbury died of a fracture of the skull and other injuries, and the belief is that he was held up and robbed. Although he arrived home soon after 10 o'clock last night in a battered condition and lingered until early to-day, he gave no sign to show who his assailants were or where he had been attacked. An examination of his clothing showed that his watch was gone and the chain snapped off in the middle. The watch-pocket was also torn. A big wallet in which he was known to have carried a large amount of money contained only nine cents. The straw hat he wore was smashed in at the front, where he had received the blow that fractured his skull. The police traced blood spots on Jerome avenue and thence on River avenue to 162d street, but have found no further clue. Residents of the vicinity claim that thugs infest the neighborhood and that there is inadequate police protection.

THE KISHINEFF MASSACRE.

Russian Government Moved to Vigorous Action in Punishing Those Held Responsible—Hundreds on Trial.

By Cable to the Morning Star

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Information of an entirely reliable character, concerning the Kischineff massacre, has reached here. From advices received to-day it appears that the protests which arose in the United States and many other civilized countries against the murderous attacks upon the Jews in Kischineff last Spring has not been without practical effect. This information states that the Russian government has been moved to vigorous action in the matter of investigating and punishing those who were responsible for the Kischineff massacre. Eight hundred arrests have been made and as a result of the preliminary examination 350 persons have been remanded for trial in the lower courts. Four hundred and fifty cases have been sent to the court of appeals of which 53 are indictments for manslaughter.

FOR THE WORLD'S TROPHY.

Americans Beat the Best Shots of Europe, South Africa and Canada.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

BISLEY, ENGLAND, July 11.—America to-day recaptured the Palm trophy. Her team scored an aggregate of 1,570 out of a possible 1,650 and beat all the best shots of Europe, South Africa, Australia and Canada, congregated for the first time on English soil to compete for the world's premier shooting trophy. Great Britain was second, with 1,555. With the exception of the 800 yards range, at which the United Kingdom beat them by three points, the American team demonstrated superiority over all comers. The other grand aggregates are: Australia 1,501, Natal 1,399, Norway 1241, France 1,-230.

The weather conditions were favorable, though the heat was terrific. The shooting of the American team was notably quicker than that of the others.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

An Unprecedented Gain Reported in Number of New Societies.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

DENVER, COL., July 11.—At the conference in Central Presbyterian church to-day of state, district and local Christian Endeavor officers, President Francis E. Clark and Treasurer William Shaw earnestly urged a continuance of the campaign for the extra session of the organization. The reports of the field secretaries showed an unprecedented gain in the number of new societies, 2,460 having been established since the last convention. The greatest per cent. of increase was thirty-four, which was reported for New Mexico.

DENOUNCED THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

Proceedings of the Convention of the Baptist Young People's Union of America.

SOME INTERESTING FEATURES

Resolutions of Sympathy for the Baptists of Great Britain—The Speeches—Union of North and South—"Uncle Tom's Cabin."

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ATLANTA, GA., July 11.—The convention of the Baptist's Young People's Union of America to-day adopted resolutions commending the general lines of the work in past years and recommending renewed efforts for the future, endorsing all efforts for the promotion of missionary intelligence, and condemning in emphatic terms the liquor traffic. Sympathy was expressed for the Baptists of Great Britain in their great struggle to maintain the historical position regarding the relation of church and state and the preservation of soul liberty.

One of the most interesting features of the convention was the salutation of the flags at the morning session, when a great number of banners were carried in procession around the auditorium by the lady delegates from all sections of the country. Following this there were responses from representatives from many States, territories and provinces, reciting the progress of the societies' work.

One of the features was the speech of Samuel D. McKenny, of Alton, Ill., responding for his State. Mr. Kenny spoke for a union of North and South and declared that it was time for the Northern people to stop shouting "Uncle Tom's Cabin" before their children.

"We have had enough of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," declared Mr. McKenny, and the people of the North should not give it to their children to read, engendering feelings of bitterness. We need to cease giving ear to the prattle against the South and to unite in praising the names of Lincoln and Lee, of Grant and Jackson."

Other speakers at to-day's sessions were Rev. Dr. A. W. Bourne, of Gloversville, N. Y.; Rev. Henry A. Porter, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Rev. E. Pendleton Jones, of Owensborough, Ky., and Rev. M. J. Breaker, of St. Louis.

The pulpits of the city churches will be occupied to-morrow by delegates to the convention, both morning and evening.

FLOOD AT PENSACOLA, FLA.

Streets Turned Into Lakes and Rivers. Traffic on Street Cars and Railroads Greatly Retarded.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PENSACOLA, FLA., July 11.—For the past forty-eight hours the rainfall in this city has been heavier than known before in many years. In three hours yesterday the rainfall, according to official measurement, was nearly three inches, and this morning it was fully equal that amount. As a result streets have been turned into lakes and rivers. In one instance in the northern section of the city a house occupied by colored people was taken almost from the pillars, the water being five feet in front of the door. A police officer went to the place and rescued an old woman from the house and when he left the building the furniture was floating about the rooms in about two feet of water. Traffic, both on the street-car lines and railroads has been greatly retarded by sand washed over the tracks in many places. Several washouts on the Pensacola and Atlantic division of the Louisville and Nashville are also reported, delaying trains for several yours.

POSTOFFICE INVESTIGATION.

Postmaster General Payne States That the End is in Sight.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Postmaster General Payne to-day stated that the end of the postoffice investigation is in sight. "I am unable," he said, "to fix any particular date when the investigation will be completed, but matters have progressed to the extent where I can see an end to the laborious work."

Mr. Payne said that the incident of Mr. Madden's publication of a communication reflecting on other officials in connection with charges against the registry contract, may be regarded as closed. The postmaster general added that the inspectors had not yet reported on the investigation of the manifold contract question.

THE AMERICAN SQUADRON.

A Banquet Given Rear Admiral Cotton and His Officers at Portsmouth.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

PORTSMOUTH, ENG., July 11,—Rear Admiral Cotton, commanding the American squadron now visiting British waters, and his officers were given a banquet this evening in the town hall by the mayor. Responding to a toast to the United States navy, Admiral Cotton said that he and his colleagues brought a message of peace and love from the president and people of the United States to the sovereign and the people of England.

Vice Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, who was among those who spoke, said that such a demonstration as the visit of the American squadron and its reception brought together the two nations most instrumental in maintaining the peace of the world.

STRUCK ON A TRESTLE.

A Woman Killed and Four Other Persons Badly Injured.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., July 11.—A train on the Belt railway to-night struck five white people who were walking across a trestle near the Chattanooga furnace. Florence James was instantly killed, her head being severed from her body. Lizzie McPherson had both legs cut off; Lizzie Morton was seriously and probably fatally injured, and George Morton and another woman were knocked off the trestle and sustained severe injuries.

REPLICA OF THE CITY OF JERUSALEM.

One of the Exhibits at the St. Louis Exposition—Corner-stone Laid With Imposing Ceremonies.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

ST. LOUIS, July 11.—A plot of ground consisting of ten acres, located upon a hill at the World's Fair grounds, was formally dedicated late to-day as the site for the replica of the City of Jerusalem, one of the distinct exhibits of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

The dedication was conducted by about fifty natives from Jerusalem and fully 10,000 people witnessed the ceremonies.

Madame Lydia M. Von Finklestein Mount Ford, a native of Jerusalem, presided at the laying of the corner stone, and as the ceremonies proceeded in Hebrew and Arabic, she interpreted in English. The fifty participating natives of Palestine wore Oriental costumes. A large and magnificently embroidered tent from Egypt sheltered the participants and when all was ready ten patriarchs, representing the ten tribes of Israel, issued forth, each bearing a long scroll containing the Mosaic laws.

A sacrificial lamb brought from Egypt for the purpose was led forth. Salt was sprinkled over the participants and unleavened bread was distributed.

The corner-stone was laid with a ceremony that occupied thirty minutes. It was then sprinkled with oil, salt and incense, and was to have been sprinkled with blood from the slaughtered lamb but popular feeling being against the slaying of the lamb, the motions of killing were gone through with and the lamb was not killed. It is estimated that the erection of Jerusalem will cost $1,400,000.

NATIONAL GALLERY OF ART.

Proposed by Pierpont Morgan and Others, To be Established in Washington. The Corcoran Gallery.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The Post to-morrow will say that the Harriet Lane Johnson bequest of pictures and other art objects will not be accepted by the Corcoran Art Gallery, but that it may form part of a proposed national gallery of art. Regarding the proposed national gallery the Post will say that the board of trustees of the Corcoran Gallery of Art and several other patrons and lovers of art in this city, New York, Boston and other centres have planned to go before Congress at its next session and ask for an appropriation for the establishment of a national gallery of art. The bill, according to the Post, will be introduced in the House by a member from New York, who will himself give for the maintenance of the gallery a sum in excess of $1,000,000.

The Post will say that within the past week, J. Pierpont Morgan has held several conferences with a prominent citizen of Washington and an officer of the Corcoran gallery looking to the transfer of his entire collection of pictures and other works of art to the proposed national gallery. Mr. Moagan made no stipulation, save that the national gallery should be located in Washington, and it is said he desires to contribute the money necessary to build one wing to be known by his name.

RELIEF FROM TORRID HEAT.

Record of Deaths and Prostrations in New York and Philadelphia.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 11.—Welcome relief from the torrid heat of the past few days came to-day, beginning with a northeast breeze which sprang up early in the morning, followed by a brisk thunder shower in the afternoon and a drop of many degrees in the temperature in the evening.

The number of deaths attributed to the heat recorded during the day was seventeen. Of these the majority were children who were unable to rally from the effects of the terrific temperature of yesterday. Prostrations to the number of thirteen occurred, all during the early hours of the day.

PHILADELPHIA, July 11.—Five deaths and more than a score of prostrations was to-day's heat record in this city.

SEE-SAW BETWEEN LIFE AND DEATH.

The Doctors Now Say the Pope's Life May be Prolonged Fifteen Days.

THE BRAVE OLD PATIENT.

Hopes of the Pope's Recovery Have Again Risen at the Vatican—His Heart Getting Stronger and Action of the Kidneys Has Improved.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

ROME, July 11.—It is reported that in the last medical bulletin regarding the Pope's condition the doctor omitted to state that the action of the kidneys had improved, wishing before making this announcement to have positive evidence. Dr. Lapponi, speaking to the Spanish ambassador, who had visited the Vatican to inquire regarding the condition of the Pontiff, said:

"This is the first night when it can be said that there is real amelioration of the patient's heart trouble. That organ is getting stronger and the possibility of Pope Leo's recovery is not excluded."

The Day's Happenings.

The Pope continues to hold his own. A slight improvement is manifested in the primary ailment, but the condition of the kidneys gave cause for a renewal of anxiety. This was increased by the danger of the Pontiff's heart giving out at any moment. In a general way, however, the brave old patient may be said to be more comfortable than for several days. The doctors now say they would scarcely be surprised if the see-saw between life and death continues for another fifteen days. This afternoon the extraordinary nonagenarian received in audience three cardinals, one belonging to the order of Bishops, one to the order of Priests and one to the order of Deacons, in the private chapel of the pontifical apartments.

Hopes of the Pope's recovery have again risen at the Vatican through the restful night, taken as a whole, passed by the Pontiff. Even his attendants have been able to enjoy much needed rest, which, however, meant for the faithful valet Centra, rising at 4 o'clock in the morning.

Dr. Lapponi paid a visit to the Pope at 7 o'clock. The Pontiff at first was not in a good humor, saying he could not stand remaining so many hours in bed, never having been accustomed to lie down for longer than four or five hours at a time. The doctor, however, succeeded, most patiently, in convincing him that when persons are sick it is necessary to change their habits, even if they seem to be so comfortable.

"But is it really necessary?" asked the Pontiff.

Dr. Lapponi reptied: "It is not indispensable, but will assist our efforts."

"Then," concluded the Pope, "I must do so."

After this the Pontiff's face again assumed its habitual bright, benevolent expression, and he smiled as he has done in his best moments.

Having expressed a desire to hear mass, the Pontiff's secretary, Monsignor Angeli, celebrated it in the chapel adjacent to the sick room, leaving the door open, so that the Pope could follow the service.

Shortly afterwards Dr. Mazzoni visited the Pope and confirmed the relatively good condition of the patient, as observed by Dr. Lapponi, with the exception of the working of the kidneys, which continued to cause apprehension, as they were not functioning well. The amelioration in his Holiness' breathing will continue until liquid regathers in the pleura. The Pope's pulse is better and the movements of his bowels are regular.

Cardinal Rampolla waited for Dr. Mazzoni in the throne room, and when the physician appeared the papal secretary of state requested him to make a detailed report of the Pope's condition. After complying, Dr. Mazzoni complained to the cardinal of the gossip and criticisms concerning the doctor's diagnosis of the illness of the Pope and the treatment being administered. In reply, Cardinal Rampolla said he had complete and unbounded confidence in the physicians.

"This is why," the cardinal added, "I never interfered in any way in the consultations."

Later in the day the Pope received the Countess Moroni and Countess Canali, his nieces, and after a short talk with them asked about Monsignor Volpini, saying: "What is the matter? Why does he not come to see me?"

It was explained to the Pontiff that the excitement of the last week had overcome Mgr. Volpini, who was quite unwell, but the Pope was not informed that Mgr. Volpini was dead.

A rumor gained circulation to-day that the Pope is suffering from inflammation of the kidneys. A representative of the Associated Press went to see Professor Mazzoni to obtain a direct denial or confirmation of the rumor. Dr. Mazzoni said: "I know all about it. The news was spread by an American doctor in Rome. I authorize you to deny it emphatically and to make the following statement: The disease of the Pope is pneumonia followed by pleurisy, or as it is commonly called, pleuro-pneumonis. To have nephritis, which means inflammation of the kidneys, the latter must be diseased, while those of the Pontiff are healthy. His urine is scarce, but it is normal, both chemically and microscopically considered."

To understand the sudden and radical changes occurring, not so much in the Pope's condition as in the feeling of the public when rumors are circulated about the improved or retrograde state of the Pontiff's health, one should understand the state of nervousness, likened to an electrified condition of the atmosphere which has been aroused throughout Rome, and especially around the Vatican, during the past week of trepidation and anxiety. A general desire to see Pope Leo win another battle and accomplish what would appear to be a miracle, against all former experience and the laws of science, is uniting everybody, Catholics as well as others, in one supreme wish to see the Pope out of danger.

A triduum for the Pope's recovery was commenced to-day and will continue uncessingly until Monday night. Prayers will be said and chanted in Pope Leo's behalf, and the expenses of the services will be borne by the ancient body known as the "Pope's familiars."

A dispatch from Turin announces that even in that cradle of the House of Savoy, which wrested temporal power from the Vatican, the people are dominated by anxiety regarding the Pope's condition. The inhabitants to day formed an imposing procession, headed by priests, and slowly proceeded through the streets, chanting the intercessions. At the Church of the Consolata, the archbishop of Turin, Cardinal Richelmy, himself a possible successor of the Pope, addressed the multitude and pronounced an eulogium of Pope Leo, declaring that his death would be an irreparable loss to the Church of Rome.

The British government has been obliged to forego the custom, dating back many years, of holding no diplomatic intercourse with the Vatican. To day the government cables direct to Cardinal Rampolla, as Secretary of State, saying a cable message had been received from the government of New Zealand, inquiring about the Pope's health and requesting an answer in order to transmit it to Premier Seddon. Considerable significance was attached at the Vatican to this incident.

ROME, July 11.—"I think he will live to be one hundred," said an Italian priest in the court yard of the Vatican last night, as he read the latest bulletin regarding the Pope's condition. "I don't believe this bulletin," said another. "I don't either," chimed in a third. "But it does not do to say so here."

These expressions accurately represent the hopeless difference of opinion exhibited by those who have to rely for information regarding the Pontiff's illness, solely upon official bulletin's.

Cardinal Satolli, in a conversation with the representative of the Associated Press, told the latter that life was only kept in the tired body of the Pontiff by the constant use of powerful stimulants, and other persons equally reliable who saw the Pope yesterday and who had seen him on previous days of his illness, agree with Cardinal Satolli in saying that death has made all his ravages save the separation of the soul and the body. Yet the doctors announce to the public that Pope Leo's general condition is satisfactory. An explanation of the apparent contradiction lies in the fact that the doctors expected his Holiness to die long before this and now are exercising in their bulletins an excess of caution and a comparative method of expression which is incomprehensible to the layman. Moreover, the extraordinary vitality of their patient has, so to speak, annihilated every medical theory held by doctors in Italy, so it is scarcely surprising that Doctors Rossoni, Mazzoni and Lapponi content themselves with daily recording the symptoms of progression and retrogression which succeed each other with such baffling irregularity as to forbid the risk of making a definite prognostication for the public. In private they only disagree as to the number of days the struggle will last.

A LEGAL BATTLE.

The Southern and L. & N. Railways Contesting for Same Right of Way.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

KNOXVILLE, TENN, July 11.—A closely contested legal battle was fought in the circuit court to-day by the Southern and Louisville & Nashville railways. The roads are contesting for the same right of way in South Knoxville, and each road has secured several injunctions. All the testimony in the shape of depositions has been given. J. B. Keeble, of Nashville, Tenn., made the opening argument for the Louisville and Nashville, speaking for two hours. The case will be continued Monday. All the prominent officials of the Southern, including President Samuel Spencer left this afternoon.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—President Roosevelt to-night sent the following cablegram from Oyster Bay in response to the message sent the President by King Edward of England during the dinner to American naval officers, at Buckingham Palace, on Thursday night last:

"I thank your Majesty most cordially for your kind message, and sincerely and gratefully appreciate the courtesies which the officers of our navy have received at the hands of your Majesty and the English people."

A FATAL EXPLOSION.

Four Men Killed in Powder Works at Birmingham, Ala.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., July 11.—A terrific explosion of powder in the coining mill of the Birmingham powder mills this afternoon instantly killed four white men and completely wrecked the building. The dead are: A. Norris, coining mill man; T. Cook, yard man; Jos. Schuiiz, powder boss; L. C. Jones, master mechanic. The bodies of the men had to be pulled from the yard which surrounds the building by ropes. Four hundred kegs of powder exploded.

WARM WIRELETS.

Government secret service agents have made what they regard as an important capture of alleged conterfeiters at Gadsden, Ala. The parties arrested are Dr. James Young and Geo. Windsor.

Two convicts, Perry Hawkins and George Mance, who escaped from the State farm in Lexington, S. C., were shot and one killed and the other mortally wounded, by R. L. Swygert, who had been requested to join in the man hunt by the guards. He is held blameless.
